Gary Judd is the Managing Director of the CoveyLink Trust Practice. Gary embodies the unique, real-world pragmatism of CoveyLink Worldwide. His impressive experience as a CEO, President, COO, and executive strategy advisor to several leading enterprises brings a rare business acumen and proven perspective to CoveyLink customers. Gary's engaging presentation style makes him a requested presenter, workshop leader, and executive advisor.

The ability to establish, grow, extend, and restore trust with all stakeholders—customers, suppliers, investors and co-workers—is the key leadership competency of the new, global economy.

- Stephen M. R. Covey

Gary is quick to grasp the underlying cause of low team or organizational performance, making him instrumental to his clients. He is able to lead even rival factions to a common cause and align them to dramatically and rapidly benefit from the SPEED of TRUST. His diagnostic skills are well-known, and his customers rave about not only his practical recommendations but the excellence of his execution.

In addition to Gary's practical business skills, he has a reputation for developing people and mentoring their leadership skills. A confidant to his clients, he is masterful at not only significantly enhancing their performance but increasing their profits.

Gary has led leadership development initiatives at several leading Fortune 500 clients as well as rapidly growing mid-size organizations, including Marriott Corporation, Shell Oil, Conoco, Ingalls Shipbuilding, Marriott Management Services, The Disney Company, University of Texas Medical Branch, and several smaller organizations.

Before joining CoveyLink as Managing Director of their Trust Practice, Gary consulted numerous start-up companies, was CEO of Financial Freedom International, President and Chief Operating Officer of Cable Link, and led Covey Leadership Center's Time Management Division as well as their Business Development efforts. He also managed the redesign of the 7 Habits of Highly Effective People facilitators' manual.

Gary resides with his wife and children in beautiful, rural Utah.
